

GUDTV coverage expanded

(GTA) - GTA TeleGuam has expanded its digital television coverage into two additional neighborhoods with about 350 homes in the Guam village of Yona.

The latest service expansion into the Baza Gardens and Windward Hills communities in Yona brings to more than 36,700 the total number of homes and businesses on Guam with access to GTA TeleGuam's IP-based, 100 percent digital television called GUDTV, short for Guam Digital Television. "Guam pay television consumers now have a clear choice of television providers who are continually stepping up their programming, value added services, and overall customer care to attract and retain customers," said Andrew Gayle, executive vice president of product development and management for GTA TeleGuam. This is real, natural competition and works best to the benefit of all."

PBS kid characters coming to Guam for fundraiser

(PBS Guam) - PBS Guam, 40th anniversary this year and this event provides the opportunity to increase public awareness of our station and programs while providing a family-oriented and fun atmosphere," she added.

SuperWhy, Word Girl and Buddy from the Dinosaur Train are three characters from three children's programs shown on public television. Ticket prices are $16 for children (ages two to 11) and $20 for adults. Children under two years old get free meals. Advanced tickets can be purchased at Personal Finance Centers in Tamuning and Dededo or at the PBS Guam office in Mangilao. Tickets will also be sold at the door for $20 per child and $25 per adult. Seating is limited.

"While this event is to help raise funds for public television, it is also a great opportunity for families to spend quality time and enjoy a Saturday morning with breakfast, hands-on activities and a trip to UnderWater World," states PBS Guam general manager Dr. Sam Mabini.
